Well positioned for future opportunities

2024 was a successful year marked by the merger between ININ Group and Qben Infra, strong growth, strategic acquisitions and a successful listing on Nasdaq First North Premier Growth Market in Stockholm in the fourth quarter. We are pleased to have welcomed new shareholders, and thank you for the confidence you have shown us. The significant interest in Qben Infra confirms the strength of our business model and our role in the rapidly growing Nordic infrastructure services market. With an experienced team and a strong corporate portfolio, we are well positioned to capitalise on the tremendous market opportunities that await – especially in rail, electrification and expansion of the power grid in the Nordic countries.

During the year, we continued to strengthen our position in the Nordic infrastructure services market through a combination of organic growth and strategic acquisitions. This is entirely in line with our strategy of developing our company organically, supplemented with selective acquisitions and efficient utilization of synergies. With the merger with ININ Group in 2024, we have established a strong Group with a diversified portfolio of over 20 companies in four infrastructure niches: Construction, Rail, Power, and Testing, Inspection & Certification (TIC). Our broad presence gives us a stable foundation for long-term growth and value creation.

Strong macrotrends drive demand
The Nordic infrastructure services market is facing an extensive wave of investments. Decades of underinvestment have created a significant need for modernisation and upgrades, while electrification and sustainability requirements are accelerating the development. The transition to fossil-free energy systems and reduced climate impact require comprehensive investments in power grids and rail, while urbanisation and growing cities are driving demand for more efficient transportation and energy infrastructure.

Both Sweden and Norway have announced record-high investments in rail, power grids and sustainable urban development, which creates favourable conditions for our business. Investments are expected to continue increasing over the next ten years as a result of previously neglected maintenance and a growing focus on critical social infrastructure.

In electrification and rail expansion in particular we are seeing a robust growth in demand. These areas are characterised by high barriers to entry, with technical complexity, extensive regulatory requirements and strict safety standards making it difficult for new players to find their way into the market. These high barriers to entry benefit Qben Infra, which has established a unique position in these segments and is well equipped to make use of these opportunities and continue growing in pace with developments in the market.

Strengthened positions through strategic acquisitions
Qben Infra is continuing to grow and strengthen its position in the Nordic market through a combination of organic growth and strategic acquisitions. With a capital-light and scalable business model, we are creating long-term profitability and opening up new opportunities for growth.

Before the merger in 2024, ININ carried out several key acquisitions that further strengthen our position as a specialised operator in the Nordic infrastructure services market. SLAM Jernbaneteknikk AS, a specialist in rail signalling and electrification in Norway, and Banefjell AS, an established player in track maintenance, concrete renovation and signal systems, were acquired in March. A declaration of intent was signed regarding an acquisition of Trasé AS, a company that specialises in transport infrastructure. In September, we expanded our capacity in soil preparation and high-voltage networks through the acquisition of Skyttermoen Anlegg AS, and strengthened our presence in property development and major housing projects in Norway through Qben's mid-year acquisition of Team Bygg AS.

Early in 2025, we continued our expansion with the acquisition of Nordnes Narvik AS, a rail specialist in northern Norway, in January. That same month, we signed a letter of intent to acquire Testpartner Gruppen, which will strengthen our expertise in testing, inspection and certification (TIC).

The acquisition is a key component of our long-term strategy to grow in sectors where demand is strong and the potential for profitable growth is significant. We are looking forward to welcoming our new colleagues and continuing Qben Infra's journey of growth together.

Outlook
In conclusion, I would like to extend my deepest thanks to all our employees for your commitment and hard work. Your passion, drive and strong initiatives have been crucial for the successes that Qben Infra achieved during the year. I would also like to extend a warm welcome to our new shareholders and thank you for the confidence you have shown – together, we will build the infrastructure of the future.

With an experienced team and a proven ability to pursue organic growth, we are now looking forward to continuing our journey of growth as a listed company in 2025 together with our employees, portfolio companies and shareholders.

Øivind Horpestad
CEO, Qben Infra

The periods presented in the interim consolidated financial statements are presented in thousands SEK, unless otherwise noted.

Note 2. Significant accounting policies

The consolidated interim financial statement has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting, and the Parent Company statements in accordance with Chapter 9 of the Swedish Annual Accounts Act. Furthermore, the relevant provisions of the Annual Accounts Act have been applied.

The Group recognises a contingent consideration related to an asset acquisition when the event occurs that triggers the obligation to pay the variable compensation. Other accounting policies applied in this consolidated interim financial statement are the same as applied in the consolidated financial statements for the financial years ended 2023 and 2022. New standards and interpretations effective for financial years beginning as of 1 January 2024 have not had a significant impact on the consolidated interim financial statement.

The consolidated financial statement was authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 25 February 2025.

The switch to IFRS and RFR 2 for the Parent Company took place in conjunction with the direct listing on Nasdaq First North; refer to the company description/Prospectus.

IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations In November 2024, the Group signed a share purchase agreement pertaining to its subsidiary, Mönsterås Padelcenter AB. Accordingly, it was presented as a disposal group held for sale as of 31 December 2024.

Note 3. Significant risks and uncertainties

Qben Infra's business is exposed to operational and financial risks as well as compliance risks and external and market risks. The extent to which these risks affect Qben Infra's profits and position depends on how well the company manages its daily operations. External and market risks are events that are beyond Qben Infra's control but that affect the business environment. These are, for example, developments in the economy, customer behaviour, climate impact and political decisions. Financial risks are primarily associated with the company's need for capital, tied-up capital and access to financing. Financial risks are managed on Group level.

Qben Infra's risks and uncertainties are described in more detail in the company description. The risk assessment for the current period has not changed in relation to what is presented there.

Note 4. Use of judgements and estimates

In preparing the consolidated interim financial statement, management has made judgements and estimates about the future that affect the application of the Qben Infra's accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are consistent with Qben Infra's risk management. Revisions to estimates are recognised prospectively.

Judgements and estimates applied in Qben Infra are the same as described in the consolidated financial statements for the financial years ended 2023 and 2022 with additions of the areas described below.

Asset acquisitions vs business combinations

For each acquisition, a judgement is made of whether the acquisition is to be classified as a business combination or an asset acquisition. An individual judgement is made for each individual transaction. An optional concentration test can be applied to simplify the assessment of whether or not the transaction involves a business. The assessment of the acquisitions made during the period has resulted in all transactions being classified as business combinations.

Note 6. Revenue and segment reporting

The CEO monitors and evaluates the performance and financial position of the Group in its entirety and does not monitor performance at a disaggregated level lower than the consolidation. The CEO thereby also decides on allocation of resources and makes strategic decisions based on the Group in its entirety. Until the end of November, Qben Infra comprised a single segment. Therefore, only one reporting segment has been recognised. After the reporting period, Qben Infra will report four segments.

Since the acquisition of TeamBygg and Holtekilen on 27 June 2024, Qben Infra Group reports revenue that relates to development projects, which is recognised at the point in time the final buyers take over their units in accordance with IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In the Group's segment reporting, revenue and profit from all revenue streams are recognised over time, meaning as projects are successively completed. In its internal revenue recognition, Qben Infra also includes sales of land options in which the risks and benefits have not yet transferred to the buyer and also sets aside provisions for all costs that are attributable to the sale. With regards to development projects, this revenue recognition differs from revenue recognition according to IFRS Accounting Standards..

The Group recognises revenue when the Group meets a performance obligation, which is when a promised good or service is delivered to the customer and the customer takes control over the good or service. Control of a performance obligation can be transferred over time or at a certain point in time. The Group's revenue primarily consists of revenue from construction contracts recognised over time and development projects recognised at a point in time.

Recognition over time

Revenue from construction contracts is recognised over time. The transaction price of contracts with customers usually consists of fixed amounts, variable amounts or a combination of the two. Revenue in ongoing construction projects is recognised over time based on the project's degree of completion. This requires being able to calculate project revenue and project costs in a reliable manner. Project forecasts are regularly evaluated as a project progresses and are adjusted as needed. In cases where a contract contains several performance obligations, the transaction price is divided into each separate performance obligation based on their stand-alone sales prices.

In fixed price contracts, the customer pays the agreed price on an established payment schedule. A receivable from the customer is recognised if a promised good or service Qben Infra Group has delivered exceeds the payment. A liability to the customer is recognised if the payment exceeds the delivered services.

Recognition at a point in time

Revenue from development projects is recognised at the point in time when control is transferred to the buyer, as the final buyers take over their units.

Note 7. Investment properties

The Group has three investment properties. The investment properties are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognised as gains and losses in the consolidated income statement. All gains are unrealised.

The investment properties were acquired in late December 2023; they were acquired at less than fair value and were revalued to fair value at year-end 2023. During January–December 2024, there was a change in the fair value of one of the investment properties. During the period, investments of SEK 5,632 thousand were made in the same property. No new investment property was purchased during the year.
